

Dear Malin and Marcus,

Yaaaaaaay! Finally! We've been waiting forever! We'd soooo love to attend your wedding!

We who will attend are:

--

We fully realise that answering yes, and then not showing up will be punishable by insane amounts of spanking, and having to provide Malin and Marcus with bribes for a very long time (possibly 25 years or more).

Even though we find kids and babies super cute and cuddly, we think that both the kids and their parents will be better off if they part for this evening.

Yes, we promise to leave our infants and kids younger than 15 at home.

Special food related concerns:

- We'll happily eat anything!
- There are people with food allergies in our party, therefore we fill out the details below.
- There are vegetarians in our party, therefore we fill out the details below.

Details (who/what):
